

2014 Breeding Survey Training Session Saturday 22 February 2014

Survey volunteers assembled on Rowlands Gill Viaduct at 9a.m.

Armed with binoculars and telescopes, the Volunteers waited for the first Red Kite

Training Session at Thornley Woodlands Centre

The session was led by Ken Sanderson, Chairman and Kite Officer and Ian Kerr.

Aims, Methodology, Feeding back and Reporting incidents were included.

Ken Sanderson took some questions from the floor. The Survey Team members were given their information pack and details of which area each volunteer surveyor is to cover bi-monthly.
